Through her licensed practice, Barb has counseled individuals, families, business owners, high-level key executives and seniors in the area of risk management, debt elimination, wealth accumulation and preservation. She designs and implements proven strategies for safety and growth to create wealth.

She has earned the prestigious "Ethics In Business Award" for serving her clientele over 30 years in this field of expertise. Many times, she has been formally recognized and honored for the quality of work that she performs and the custom care that she gives her clients. Whether through her personal counseling, seminars, or hosting her many business networking events, she leads from the heart.

Her vision continues by expanding the breadth of simple or complex services she provides to take the worry, fear and uncertainty of her clients' financial concerns. She wants her clients to use the interest earned on their investment strategies, not their principal, so they won't outlive their money!
